

Dependent children

A child is a dependant if:

- the child is under the age of 21 years, or a full time student under the age of 25;
- the child is covered by your insurance policy and Peoplecare accepts the child as a dependent child on the policy.
- the child is not a partner of another person.

Privacy notice

Your personal information is protected by law (including the Privacy Act 1988) and is collected by the Australian Government Department of Human Services for the assessment and administration of payments and services. This information is required to process your application or claim.

Your information may be used by the department, or given to other parties where you have agreed to that, or where it is required or authorised by law (including for the purpose of research or conducting investigations).

You can get more information about the way in which the department will manage your personal information, including their privacy policy, at www.humanservices.gov.au/privacy
